NBC's "America's Got Talent" Magician Nathan Burton Signs Multi-Million Dollar Contract at Flamingo Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev., July 21/ -- Comedy Magician Nathan Burton recently appeared on Season 4 of "America's Got Talent," performing a whirlwind spot of mind-blowing magic, receiving a standing ovation from the crowd and thrilling the judges, with "America's Got Talent" judge David Hasselhoff raving, "Wow, wow, wow! That was terrific!"

Following Burton's exhilarating performance on one of this summer's hottest television shows, the acclaimed entertainer just extended his contract with the Flamingo Las Vegas as a result of the success of his crowd-pleasing comedy magic act. The multi-million dollar deal will keep "Nathan Burton Comedy Magic" as a headlining show for three additional years. As a testament to the show's appeal, Burton's likeness can also be seen 20 stories high on the front building wrap of the Flamingo, in the heart of the famous Las Vegas Strip.

About his experience on "America's Got Talent," Burton says, "America's Got Talent" is the most incredible experience of my life. The show has changed the life of Susan Boyle and now me. I want to thank Simon Cowell and the executive producers for this life changing experience."
